

2 OF US

RECORDED ON 14 FEBRUARY 2026, 3AM

Growing up, I listened to The Chainsmokers and Coldplay a lot. Electronic music always pulled me in. So this one was an experiment: how sweet can Swahili sound on a beat like that?

Whenever I play it back, I picture fireworks. Surfing ocean waves. That kind of feeling.

I wrote it while I was up in the mountains. I had a lot of dreams out there, a lot of impressions, and that's where this line comes from:

*"Tangu nimetoka milimani
nilikuwazia mami,
nikasummarize."* Ever since I came down from the mountains, I've been thinking about you, mami, and I summed it all up.

Like everything I saw and felt up there came down to one person.

MUSIC IS WORTH EVERY EXPERIMENT. SOME OF
OUR FAVOURITE SONGS
STARTED AS ONE.
